FENG SHUI every day

Feng Shui is a Chinese science. It is more than 5000 years old, but it is very popular today. In the Chinese language, "Feng" is "wind" and "Shui" is "water". According to Feng Shui, there are many things you can use to make your life healthy, like colours and furniture. For "good" Feng Shui, all the things in your life need to have a balance; your work, your friends, even your house and furniture! When you have a good balance, you also have positive energy, "Chi" or "Qi," as it is called in Feng Shui. Here are some things you can do in your house to make sure you have good Feng Shui.

- Don't keep things you don't need. Do you REALLY need ten pairs of black shoes? No!
- Clean your house especially the bedroom, kitchen and bathroom. It's the only way to start a healthy life.
- Rearrange the things in your bedroom. Don't put your bed opposite the door or next to a wall. Have two bedside tables and use colours like white, light yellow or brown to paint the walls. Also, do not keep a computer or TV in there. They bring bad energy!
- Make sure you have good light in your house all the time. Open the windows a lot, so you get good clean air and light from outside.
- Close all your doors at night, even the bathroom and wardrobe doors!

BIG BROTHERS BIG SISTERS OF AMERICA

Big Brothers Big Sisters is a mentoring organisation in the United States. It helps children and teenagers from 6 to 18 years old with problems at home or school to find an adult friend. There are volunteer programmes all over the country and they do a really good job.

FAQ:

How can I become a Big?

First of all, you need to be interested in the programme. Then people from the organisation check your background and you go through an interview. When everything is ready, they match Bigs and Littles with the same likes and interests, according to the area they live in. Then who knows? You can be friends forever!

What do the Bigs and Littles do together?

Well, you only need to spend a few hours a month with your Little and do everyday stuff together, like play video games, order pizza, go for a walk in the park or just hang out and talk. This is really important for the Littles.

There are so many children and teenagers out there that would love to have a friend and a guide. So, why don't you think about it and get involved today?

1. The volunteers in the programme are from 6 to 18 years old.
2. The Littles are children with problems at school only.
3. The volunteers talk to some people before they become Bigs.
4. Bigs and Littles don't need to hang out every day.

E. Read and write T for True or F for False.

Read with your hands, not your eyes

You use your eyes and read this text easily. But what about blind people?
How can they read?
They can read with Braille.

What is Braille?

Braille is a kind of alphabet. In this alphabet, small dots make up the letters of each word. Each number of dots means a different letter. The dots stick up from the paper, so the blind person feels the dots and reads the letters.

Who invented Braille?

Louis Braille. He was born in a small town near Paris, France, in 1809. He became blind at the age of four. At a school for the blind in Paris, he learnt to read some raised capital letters. This kind of alphabet was difficult and many blind people didn't like using it. Louis Braille wanted to help blind people read and write easily, so he invented a new alphabet in 1829. He didn't use raised letters, but raised dots. Louis Braille died in 1852 and two years later many schools for the blind started using his alphabet.

Where is Braille used today?

Today, you can find Braille almost everywhere. It is used on menus, watches and lifts! It is also in buildings like banks and libraries. There are also special computers for blind people. They can use them to type things in Braille for other blind people to read.

1. Braille is a special alphabet.
2. Louis Braille was born blind.
3. Blind people started reading in 1852.
4. Blind people can't use computers.

Last year, I went horse riding with my husband, Steve. We both love sports and we were really excited. It was a funny experience. You see, we were on the horses when there was a loud noise and they got scared. They started running and we couldn't stop them. I was terrified. After a while my husband fell off his horse. Luckily, a few minutes later my horse stopped running. I got off and ran to Steve. He had a huge bump on his head and when he saw me, he said, 'I don't think we should go horse riding again'.

Emily 31

About a month ago, I visited my grandparents and my grandfather decided to spend the weekend fishing with me. We got ready and went to the river near their house. At first it was fun, but after a while I got bored. I didn't want to scare the fish away, so I couldn't talk, listen to music or even move. Suddenly, I felt something moving in the water. "A fish!" I shouted to my grandfather. Unfortunately, I was really excited, and when I stood up I fell into the water. My grandfather couldn't stop laughing. It was really embarrassing but I had a great time.

Jonathan 19

A race to get excited about: A bed race!

Do you like unusual competitions? Would you like to go down a hill, rolling on a fast bed? Well, we have the perfect race for you! Every year in Key West, Florida the Conch Republic Independence Celebration group organises a race to raise money for AIDS Help, Inc. Everyone can get involved: men, women, children, and everyone has a great time! To join, you have to give $100 per team for the AIDS Help, Inc.

What exactly is a bed race?

You make your bed and put wheels on the bottom, so you can roll anywhere you want. The race starts at the top of the hill on Duval Street and competitors go down the street to the finishing line, and they go FAST! Spectators can watch the race from anywhere near the road.

Order of events:

- The day before the event, there is a dinner for the competitors at an Irish restaurant on Flagler Ave.
- On the afternoon of the race, there is a team meeting and a parade of all the competitors and their beds.
- At 3:30pm, the race starts!
- After the race, there is an awards ceremony and the winner gets a prize.
- Losers aren't really losers. All competitors get free T-shirts!

How can I join?

Does this sound good to you? For information or questions, please e-mail: marketing@fairvilla.com or call 305-294-2298. It's not too early to train for next year. The next race is going to take place on 25th April. You can enter online today!

Everyone's Irish on 17th March...

Saint Patrick's Day!

Saint Patrick's Day is the national holiday of Ireland. Irish people celebrate this day on 17th March. People from all over the world celebrate this special day, too. It is especially popular in Australia and in North America.

It's a celebration of Irish culture and people listen to Irish music, eat traditional Irish food and take part in parades. On this day, everywhere you look you can see the colour green. People wear green, paint their faces green and they even eat green food. In Chicago, USA, the city uses special colours to make the river green. That's right, the whole river!

In Dublin, Ireland, the Saint Patrick's Day parade is part of a five-day festival and over 500,000 people attend the parade. In the USA, Saint Patrick's Day is also very special. The first Saint Patrick's Day parade was in Boston in 1737. In Chicago, the parade lasts all day and in New York, a parade of 150,000 people marches up 5th Avenue.

1. Only people in Ireland celebrate Saint Patrick's Day.

Unusual buildings

The Leaning Tower of Pisa is a famous building in Italy. Why is it so famous? It's beautiful and it also looks like it's going to fall down! They started building it in 1173, it took about two hundred years to finish and it wasn't straight from the very beginning. It's about 60 metres tall and has about 300 stairs. Many tourists visit it every year. The building isn't the biggest in the world, but it is one of the most interesting!

The Ice Hotel near Quebec city, Canada, is a hotel completely made of snow and ice! It was the first ice hotel in North America. The hotel owners build the hotel every year when the weather gets cold. So you can only stay there during the winter, of course. It is open from January till April. Everything in the hotel is made of ice: the furniture, the walls, even the beds! Special "ice artists" come from all over the world to design the inside of the place. This hotel is definitely the coldest hotel you can visit!

70s Style

Fashion in the 70s was all about big: big hair, big clothes and lots of colours. Have a look at the real 70s look. Would you like to have these clothes and accessories in your wardrobe?

1. Flared trousers or jeans were one of the most popular pieces of clothing. People wore all kinds of colours but the most important thing was that the trousers' legs were very wide.

2. Check out the collar of this shirt! In the 70s trendy shirts had very big collars. Also, there were lots of different designs to choose from and lots of colours. Of course a colourful tie to match the shirt was an important accessory. There's only one word to describe the tie: 'large'!

3. 70s accessories were the ones that made a difference. Once again, big hats, big belts, huge sunglasses and all of them colourful. The most important characteristic of all, though, was big hair.

4. The footwear of the 70s was of course, platform shoes. It was trendy for both men and women to wear these. The soles were really thick and the best part was that it made even short people look taller!

I didn't stay in Canberra, the (2) _____ city of Australia. I stayed in Sydney. It's on the east (3) _____ of the country. Sydney has a (4) _____ of over four million! Australia's official (5) _____ is English, so I didn't have a problem communicating. There are many (6) _____ and fun things to do. Last week, my friends and I went hiking and mountain biking with a (7) _____ of other tourists and a tour guide. We explored the Great Dividing Range, the biggest (8) _____ range in the country. Its highest mountain is Mount Kosciuszko, and it is over 2200 metres above sea level. I also saw a koala. It's a very friendly and (9) _____ animal! My holiday in Australia was a great experience and I can't wait to go again! So, what did you do during your holiday?

Write back soon!

B. Read and answer the questions.

The Magnificent Maldives

The Maldives are a group of very small islands in the Indian Ocean, near Sri Lanka. It has the smallest population of any Asian country. There are about 1200 islands and there are people living on 200 of them. About 400,000 people live in the Maldives and 75,000 of them are on the capital island, Malé. Malé is different from the other islands in the Maldives, because it doesn't have any beaches. In fact, there is a wall that goes around the whole island.

Eighty-seven of the islands in the Maldives have different types of hotels on them, so tourists can go and enjoy their holidays. They can even stay in a small cabin right over the water like the one in the picture.

It's very easy to get around the islands. When you arrive on the airport island, you can take a dhoni and go to Malé. This is a small boat used for transportation around the islands. Dhoni taxis go from the airport island to the capital island every 15 minutes and after midnight every half hour. You can use these boats to visit other islands, too.

The Maldives are a popular place for scuba-diving, because there are many wonderful fish in the water to see. Also, the water is very clear so when you are underwater you can see for more than 50 metres! There are many professional diving schools with instructors. They speak many languages, so you can find someone to help you. Of course, that's not all you can do on these beautiful islands. You can go whale and dolphin watching, fishing, surfing, snorkelling, hiking or explore the towns.

1. How many islands are there in the Maldives? _____
2. What's the population of the Maldives? _____
3. What's the capital of the Maldives? _____
